

SPLAT

Who we are SPLAT is the Nottingham City Learning Disability and Autism Partnership Board.
SPLAT stands for Speak, Listen and Act Together.

What we do Help people with a learning disability, people with autism and family carers get involved in planning and checking services

What's new or different? New meetings so more people can get involved:

- Listening days – to find out what you think
- Working groups – to plan for Board meetings
- Board meetings – to work with professionals to make decisions

Who is it for? People with a learning disability and people with autism who use Nottingham City Council services and their family carers.

How to find out more

Who to contact? Ken Holland

Telephone 07814 712367

Email splat@voxcommunityinterest.org

Website <http://nottingham-splat.weebly.com>

