

Theatre Royal and Royal Concert Hall Nottingham

Who we are The Theatre Royal and Royal Concert Hall Nottingham are two of the UK's most successful touring venues. We have won awards for making a 150 year old building accessible to everyone and supporting Deaf and disabled people to access music.

We are always looking at ways to improve and would like to know what you think about the venue and how we can do things better.

What we do Our programme of events includes orchestras, ballet, opera and touring drama alongside West End musicals, stand-up comedy, rock and pop.

Assisted Performances include:

Sign Language Interpreted Performances

Audio Described Performance for blind or partially sighted customers via personalised headphones. Braille and Large Print cast lists. Programme notes broadcast 15 minutes before the performance

Touch tours for visually impaired customers to go onto the stage and explore the sets, costumes and props before the performance begins

Captioned Performance for people who are hard of hearing. Dialogue, sound effects and words are shown on a unit at the side of the stage.

Relaxed Performances

Specifically designed and adapted to have a less formal, more supportive atmosphere in order to reduce anxiety levels.

What's new or different?
